

CAL, 19-LOSAN, 14-

✓California Los Angeles
State County

126 Plaza Street
Los Angeles
Town or Vicinity

6p
8d

Structure Plaza Fire House (CAL-338)

Library Material: Pages of a Report, 8; Photographs, 6; Measured Drawings, 0.

History: Built in 1884. Second built and oldest standing in Los Angeles. Now owned by State of California and occupied by Los Angeles City Fire Department as a museum.
In active use as fire station until 1896. Various occupants until acquired by State in 1950.

Description: Two-story brick building with fire engine equipment and stables on ground floor. Personnel accommodations on second floor. Romanesque cornice of corbeled arches on front. Wood balcony over equipment entrance and wood roof covering over open bell cupola.
(Over)

References: Los Angeles From the Days of the Pueblo by W. W. Robinson, Calif. Historical Society. Captain Robert N. Foster, Historian, Los Angeles Fire Department.
Report Prepared by: J. Thomas Owen & Raymond Girvigian.

Index Card Prepared by: A. Lewis Koue, AIA, HABS Arch.,
National Park Service
January 1964